CITIZEN SERVICE NETWORK

Citizen Service Network (CSN) is the reference organization for Civil/Citizen Service in Belgium. It aims at enabling all young people from 18 to 25 years old to make a Citizen Service in order to promote their personal development as well as their integration in society as responsible, active, critical and supportive citizens.

They can choose 6-month volunteer missions in organizations with solidarity projects. Their time is divided so : 80% mission in their host organization and 20% trainings with the CSN, peer-to-peer exchanges, and times of maturation and orientation.

Besides the pedagogical mission, the CSN works for the political recognition of the project, tries to communicate on the societal impacts of the project and to increase its network of partner associations to support the project,...

VOLUNTEERING DESCRIPTION

You will support the pedagogical team of the Citizen Service Network, which accompanies youngsters between 18 and 25 years old who commit themselves for six months to a voluntary mission in Belgium in our Citizen Service program. You will be involved in the recruitment and follow-up of young people, in the cooperation with the host organizations that welcome young people in the Citizen Service, in the organization and animation of information sessions, integration weeks, workcamps, trainings, exchange times, complementary missions and the annual closing ceremony. Administrative tasks are foreseen, not exceeding 20% of your mission.

You will take part in weekly meetings of the pedagogical team, as well as in meetings and strategy days with the entire Citizen Service Network. 's team. During your assignment, you will be expected to be actively and creatively involved. You can, for example, propose new activities to the team, or carry out a personal project if you wish.

VOLUNTEER PROFILE

We are looking for an open-minded young, interested in meeting young people from all socio-cultural backgrounds, in exploring and deepening the themes of climate change and eco-citizenship at local and European level, in sharing his/her ideas and culture with other volunteers and able to work independently and in a team.

The main language, especially with our target groups is French, so a basic level of French is required.

About Belgium

Belgium is a unique country, its cultural richness can be seen at every street corner, its historical heritage is part of the scenery with an atypical architecture. You will be able to taste the best dishes while enjoying the idyllic setting that this country offers.

Whether in Ghent, Bruges, Charleroi or Brussels. Belgium is full of surprises. You will be amazed by its beauty and its very own atmosphere.

About Brussels

Park of the fiftieth anniversary

With its superb architecture, its museums and its monuments (several of which are classified by Unesco), the capital of Belgium and in a way also of the European Union offers many attractions to its visitors, including in its peripheral districts (Woluwe-Saint Pierre, Ixelles, Saint-Gilles...).

Second most cosmopolitan city in the world, Brussels offers a rich and varied cultural ground.

Brussels offers numerous activities, both cultural and sporting, giving you the opportunity to explore the city to its fullest extent in your free time.
