- 5 You will be entitled to financial compensation including pocket money, food, and travel in your city*

*According to the financial rules of the ESC program

CITIZEN SERVICE NETWORK

Citizen Service Network (CSN) is the reference organization for Civil/Citizen Service in Belgium. It aims at enabling all young people from 18 to 25 years old to make a Citizen Service in order to promote their personal development as well as their integration in society as responsible, active, critical and supportive citizens.

They can choose 6-month volunteer missions in organizations with solidarity projects. Their time is divided so : 80% mission in their host organization and 20% trainings with the CSN, peer-to-peer exchanges, and times of maturation and orientation.

Besides the pedagogical mission, the CSN works for the political recognition of the project, tries to communicate on the societal impacts of the project and to increase its network of partner associations to support the project,...

VOLUNTEERING DESCRIPTION

The volunteer will be integrated into the operational and pedagogical management team and will be accompanied and supported to carrying out the following tasks.

The volunteer will have a support role in the inter-branch coordination and in the organization of inter-branch events such as : training courses, complementary missions for young people in Citizen Service, work camps, organization and follow-up of inter-branch pedagogical days.

The volunteer will also cooperate with the management in order to assist and offer support to the following departments and project : Europe department, Climate flagship project. The volunteer will participate in weekly meetings of the pedagogical team, as well as in meetings and strategy days with the entire team of the Citizen Service Network. During the assignment, s-he will be expected to be actively and creatively involved, propose new activities to the team and carry out a personal project.

VOLUNTEER PROFILE

We are looking for someone who is open-minded (interested in meeting young people from all backgrounds and social backgrounds), interested in exploring and deepening the themes of citizenship at local and European level, interested in sharing his ideas and culture with other volunteers and able to work independently and as a team. The main language, especially with our target groups is French, so a basic level of French is required.

About Belgium

Belgium is a unique country, its cultural richness can be seen at every street corner, its historical heritage is part of the scenery with an atypical architecture. You will be able to taste the best dishes while enjoying the idyllic setting that this country offers.

Whether in Ghent, Bruges, Charleroi or Brussels. Belgium is full of surprises. You will be amazed by its beauty and its very own atmosphere.

About Namur

Citadel of Namur

Visiting Namur means strolling through the pedestrian area without hurrying, enjoying a beer on the old "Place du marché aux légumes" or walking to the Citadel. From the top of this spur, sheltered by one of the largest fortresses in Europe, the view of the old city is incomparable.

The historical heart of the city has some architectural gems in store for you : the Saint-Aubain cathedral, the theater, the belfry, to name but a few. You can also enjoy a walk along the quays, or go a little further by visiting the surroundings : you won't be disappointed !

Namur offers numerous activities, both cultural and sporting, giving you the opportunity to explore the city to its fullest extent in your free time.
